The nature of investment in Financial Instruments is such that not all Financial instruments are suitable for everyone unless they:

- ✓ are knowledgeable in investment matters;
- ✓ understand the risk involved;
- ✓ are able to bear the economic risk of the investment;
- ✓ believe that the investment is suitable for their particular investment objectives and financial needs ;
- ✓ have no need for liquidity of investment.

Should any non-professional investor invest in Financial Instruments, it is advisable that only a part of the sums that the investor intends to invest for long-term, should be so invested. It is also advisable that all investors should seek advice from a professional investment advisor before making any investment in Financial Instruments.
